5:00pm - 6:00pm: Closing Reception

This powerful program presents a condensed collection of emerging relevant research, experiential best practices, and evidence-based practical solutions for energy renewal, burnout prevention, and resilience-building.

What People Say

"What an affirming and empowering experience!"

"I was beyond honored and appreciative to be able to participate in this retreat!"

"Friends, I cannot recommend this experience enough! Angela creates this beautiful transparent space to connect with new friends and release what weighs you down."

"Gift your team, your executives, your self with a day away. I'm still using tools she provided to stay centered. I'm still so grateful for the new friends I met."

The RENEWAL Model

Each step of the model represents a set of concepts and techniques you can use to replenish, protect and preserve your energy for what matters most.

RENEWAL Sessions

Context:

The RENEWAL framework offers a variety of energy protection strategies.

Each of the 7 components can be facilitated as a standalone workshop or multiple components can be combined to customize the experience and maximize relevance for the audience.

Renewal Topic Descriptions:

RECENTER WELLBEING: Has life been intense? Quiet the chaos around you and choose to listen to the signs your body and mind are sending. You deserve to live with vitality, strength, and energy, and you must claim these things as priorities for yourself.

PRACTICE EMOTIONAL AGILITY: We often squash our emotions, but they are actually a source of wisdom. Discover how both positive and negative emotions (even anger, irritation, and resentment) can serve as valuable signals for personal growth and self-awareness.

TRY NEUROGRAPHIC ART: This is not your typical breakout session – it's a unique and fun guided artistic experience that introduces an easy art therapy technique anyone can use to release stress, unlock creative perspective, and balance the "fight or flight" response with the healing power of "rest and digest".

RECLAIM JOY: Escape the constant demands of life's to-do list. Reconnect with what brings you joy, and give yourself permission to schedule time solely for the purpose of experiencing what is most lifegiving for you.

BE YOUR OWN BEST ADVOCATE: Protect your energy by getting good at setting clear boundaries. Learn the art of advocating for yourself with clear, kind, and concise language, and identify boundaries you can start to strengthen right away.

STRENGTHEN SELF-WORTH: When you make a mistake, are you self-critical or forgiving? Recognize the destructive impact of perfectionism, learn the power of "satisficing" to optimize your energy, and embrace self-compassion as key to building resilience.

DO LESS, ACHIEVE MORE: Working yourself to the brink of exhaustion isn't sustainable. Stop overfunctioning and re-energize with strategic focus. Let go of what's not working and create time and space for what matters most.
